ILLINOIS GAMING BOARD
AUGUST 17, 1993

On August 17, 1993 and pursuant to Public Notice issued by the Board in conformity with Illinois Revised Statutes Chapter 102, Paragraphs 41.02 and 42.02, the Illinois Gaming Board toured proposed riverboat casino docksites in four Illinois communities. The Public Notice was issued by the instruction of Chairman William J. Kunkle, Jr. and was duly and timely given to each Board Member and the general public.

The following Board Members were present: William J. Kunkle, Jr., Chairman; and Board Members J. Thomas Johnson, Gayl M. Pyatt, J. William Roberts and Robert F. Vickrey.

Also in attendance were Administrator Morton E. Friedman and Deputy Administrator Joseph McQuaid; the media and the general public.

The Board viewed proposed riverboat casino docksites in the following communities:

- Elgin, Illinois
- West Dundee, Illinois
- Antioch, Illinois
- Moline, Illinois.

It is noted that no testimony was received by the Board nor was any other business of the Board transacted or discussed.

Respectfully submitted

James A. Nelson
Secretary of the Board
